Dear Mr. Wood -

In the mail I sent you I was not able to get up to the Numismatic Society. Would you kindly send this bundle of coins to

I am most grateful to you for all your assistance. I trust we shall have interesting numismatic finds during the next two years in Persia. I shall let you know about them. My address is: c/o The American Consul, Teheran, Iran (Persia).

Yours,

Dear Sir:

Awhile ago George Miles turned over to us to see if we could help him out a number of coins that you brought back from Asia Minor and Turkestan. We have been holding these here as we expected him in any day. I have just received a letter as he was leaving for the east to return the coins to you, and under separate cover, we are doing so. We have been able to attribute a number of the pieces that he failed to do and in some instances have corrected his attributions. Many of the pieces were really too poor to do anything with. We were wondering if we could get from you several of these coins. They are scattered through the lot but we have put them in envelopes and have stated we would like to get them, also we have put a little red cross on the envelopes. I remain

Very truly yours,
